Indiana University School of Medicine
Fact Sheet for 2013-2014

- The IU School of Medicine has nine campuses across Indiana. In 2012-13, Bloomington and Lafayette added third-year clerkships to their programs. Ft. Wayne, South Bend, Terre Haute, and IUSM-Northwest host all four years on their campuses. Muncie and Evansville are in the planning stage of expansion.
- IU School of Medicine educates the second largest medical student body in the U.S.
- IU School of Medicine student body represents 54 of the 92 Indiana counties and 91 colleges and universities.
- IU faculty has performed many "firsts" in Indiana including transplants of the kidney, liver, cornea, bone marrow, pancreas, and infant and newborn hearts.
- Approximately half of Indiana's physicians received all or some of their education at the IU School of Medicine.
- IU School of Medicine has more than 60 clinical departments and specialty divisions.
- Nearly half of IU School of Medicine graduates accept instate residencies.
- Nearly 40 percent of IU School of Medicine graduates enter primary care specialties.

2013 ENTERING CLASS

M.D. Students

Number of applicants.....4,715
Number of student enrolled.....344
- Male.....191
- Female.....153
- Minorities.....45
- In-state.....290
- Out-of-state.....54
- Average GPA of class.....3.73
- Average MCAT score.....31.1/0

Graduate Students

Number of students enrolled
- Ph.D. students.....29
- M.D./ Ph.D. students.....7
- Master of Science In Medical Science (MSMS).....20
- Master's students.....47
- Certificate Students.....8

TOTAL STUDENT BODY

- M.D. Programs.....1,318
- Ph.D. Program.....213
- M.D./Ph.D. Program.....46
- Master of Science In Medical Science (MSMS).....20
- Master's Programs.....128
- Health Professions.....265
- Certificate Program.....13

Subsets of total student body
- Male.....1,031
- Female.....972
- Minorities.....361
- In-state.....1,122
- Out-of-state.....241

MD students at Indianapolis Campus.....858

M.D. students at
- Northwest.....70
- South Bend.....67
- Fort Wayne.....80
- Evansville.....46
- Terre Haute.....67
- Bloomington.....85
- Lafayette.....44
- Muncie.....46

Living Alumni.....19,114

M.D. ANNUAL TUITION

In-State.....$33,018
Out-of-State.....$51,888

RESIDENTS AND FELLOWS

Number of accredited residency and fellowship programs.....83
residents and fellows.....1,155

FACULTY & STAFF

Full-time faculty.....1,977
Part-time faculty.....183
Volunteer faculty.....3,020
Staff.....1,950

RESEARCH

Grants awarded for fiscal year 2012-2013.....$261,177,587
Awarded research studies for fiscal year 2012-2013.....1,484
Research centers and institutes.....29

Website
medicine.iu.edu

E-mail addresses:
Admissions....inmedadm@iupui.edu
Residency.....houstaff@iupui.edu
Financial Aid.....jespada@iupui.edu

Important Numbers:
Student Admissions.....(317) 274-3772
Student Financial Aid ....(317) 274-8568
Residency Program .....(317) 274-8282
Dean's Office.....(317) 278-3048
Alumni Office.....(317) 274-8828
Development Office.....(317) 274-3270
Media Relations.....(317) 274-7722
Continuing Medical Ed....(317) 274-0104
CME Registration ..... (317) 274-8353

Mailing Address:
IU School of Medicine
340 West 10th Street, Suite 6200
Indianapolis, IN 46202

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Indiana University School of Medicine
Fact Sheet for 2013-2014

1903 IU School of Medicine is established in Bloomington, Indiana.

1906 Third-year medical students begin clinical study in Indianapolis.

1911 First courses in medical social work are offered.

1914 Long Hospital, the first IU hospital, is dedicated.

1915 IU Continuing Medical Education program begins.

1919 Medical School Building, now Emerson Hall, opens.

1920 IU School of Medicine freshman class reaches 100 - among largest in the U.S.

1924 Riley Memorial Association opens James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children and grants ownership to IU.

1928 Coleman Hospital for Women opens, the first Indiana hospital exclusively for obstetrics and gynecology.

1933 Department of Medical Illustrations established.

1952 Roudebush VA Medical Center opens; staffed by IU physicians.

LaRue Carter Hospital opens; staffed by IU physicians.

1956 Institute for Psychiatric Research is dedicated.

1958 Medical Science Building opens, later re-named after John VanNuys, M.D., dean, 1947-1964.

IU School of Medicine moves to Indianapolis.

1959 IU School of Medicine establishes the Division of Allied Health Sciences.

Medical Sciences Program established in Bloomington.

1963 Krannert Institute of Cardiology is dedicated.

1967 Regenstrief Institute for Health Care is established

1970 Indiana University Hospital opens.

1971 Statewide Medical Education Centers established.

1974 IU Distinguished Professor Lawrence Einhorn, M.D., pioneers cure for testicular cancer.

1977 National Institutes of Health funds Diabetes Research and Training Center.

1983 IU School of Medicine awarded fiscal and medical control of Wishard Memorial Hospital.

IU School of Medicine opens Elks Cancer Research Center.

1987 National Institutes of Health funds Alcohol Research Center at IU School of Medicine.

Walther Oncology Center established.

1989 Medical Research and Ruth Lilly Library Building is dedicated.

1990 Herman B Wells Center for Pediatric Research is dedicated. Bowen Research Center established.

National Institutes of Health funds Midwest Sexually Transmitted Disease Collaborative Research Center.

1991 National Institutes of Health funds Indiana University Alzheimer Disease Center.

1995 National Institutes of Health estab lishes a National Gene Vector Laboratory at IU School of Medicine.

1996 Indiana Cancer Pavilion is dedicated.

1997 IU Hospital and Riley Hospital for Children consolidate with Methodist Hospital of Indiana to form Clarian Health.

Indiana University Center for Aging Research opens.

Department of Health and Human Services funds National Center of Excellence in Women's Health at IU.

Indiana University Cancer Research Institute is dedicated.

1999 IU Cancer Center receives National Cancer Institute designation.

2000 Riley Hospital for Children opens Riley Outpatient Center.

Indiana Genomics Initiative (INGEN™) formed with $105 million grant from Lilly Endoment.

2001 IU Center for Bioethics established on IUPUI campus.

2003 Biotechnology Research and Training Center and Research II buildings open.

2005 IUSM-South Bend opens new center with University of Notre Dame, dedicate Raclin-Carmichael Hall.

2006 The Fairbanks Institute is established by BioCrossroads with IU School of Medicine and Regenstrief Institute.

2007 Health Information and Translational Sciences building dedicated; this extends the IUSM campus to the Indianapolis Central Canal.

The first class of PhD students enter the Indiana BioMedical Gateway Program.

2008 The Indiana University Melvin and Bren Simon Cancer Center opens a new patient care facility.

2009 Joseph E. Walther Hall building is dedicated.

IUSM-Fort Wayne opens the Medical Education and Research Building.

2010 Lilly Endowment Inc. boosts research at IUSM with a $60 million grant for the Indiana Physician Scientist Inititive

2011 IUSM-South Bend and University of Notre Dame dedicate Harper Hall.

Eugene and Marilyn Glick Eye Institute is dedicated.

2012 IUSM breaks ground for the Neurosciences Research Building, to be part of the IU Health Neuroscience Center.

The Department of Public Health, established by the school in 1998, becomes the Indiana University Richard M. Fairbanks School of Public Health.

2013 IU School of Medicine broke ground for the Indiana University Neurosciences Research Building, a 138,000-square-foot building designed to bring neuroscientists together to advance multidisciplinary research.